

Russell Lower School Geography MTP

Year 3 Spring term Brazil

Session/Unit	Key Learning (Knowledge learnt – Composite)	Key knowledge (Components)	Teaching sequence overview
1	Pre Unit Assessment		What I know What I want to know
2	To locate the position of the equator, hemispheres and Arctic and Antarctic Circles.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To know the equator is an imaginary line running around the middle of the world. - To know countries closer to the equator have a warmer climate. - To know compass directions North and South. - To know the Northern Hemisphere is above the equator. - To know the Southern Hemisphere is below the equator. - To know the Arctic Circle is in the Northern Hemisphere. - To know the Antarctic Circle is in the Southern Hemisphere. 	See Lynx
3	To locate world countries with a focus on South America.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To know the world has seven continents. - To know Brazil is in South America. - To know there are twelve countries in South America and name them. 	-
4	To identify key countries and capitals in South America.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To locate the countries in South America using a map. - To recognise the capital cities of countries in South America using a map. 	-

5	To identify key physical features of Brazil.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To know what a physical feature is. - To know environmental regions of Brazil. - To know the main symbols and gradient colours used on a Physical Map. - To know green represents near sea level height, brown represents higher areas and blue represents oceans, rivers and seas. 	-
6	To identify key human characteristics of Brazil.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To know what a human characteristic is. - To know Christ the Redeemer is a human characteristic. - To know some human characteristics in Brazil. 	-
7	To compare human and physical differences between the UK and Brazil.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To know what a physical feature is. - To know what a human characteristic is. - To know some physical and human characteristics in the UK. - To know some physical and human characteristics in Brazil. - To know how to compare using a Carroll Diagram. 	-
8	Post Unit Assessment		What I have learnt