

Week beginning 4th January 2020

WALT: Write sentences by saying out loud what we are going to write about. (1.2.b.1)

You have a two minute challenge to pause and think about your Christmas holidays, what was your favourite part? Then tell your grown up all about it.

Think about...

- * What you did?
- * What did you receive?
- * How did you feel?

WALT: Write sentences by saying out loud what we are going to write about.

See if you can write a list of things you did.

Think about what you you are going to write, say it out loud to yourself and then have a go at writing it down

My list would be:

I watched a film called The Grinch.

I had Christmas dinner with my family.

I gave my Mum some heart earrings.

I got some headphones.

Once finished tell your grown up your list - so you must be able to read your own work back.

WALT: Write sentences by saying out loud what we are going to write about.

Model

From our list we now need to begin writing in full sentences adding more detail. Remember to say your sentence out loud before writing it.

I watched a film called The Grinch and it was very funny.

WALT: Write sentences by saying out loud what we are going to write about.

This is what some of my complete sentences would look like.

Christmas Holidays Writing Report

I watched...

I watched a film with my family. It was called The Grinch! He was really grumpy and that made me laugh!

I received...

I got some headphones. I was very happy because I have wanted some of these for a long time.

I visited...

I ate...

I had Christmas dinner with my family. We ate turkey, roast potatoes and vegetables. It was lovely.

I gave...

WALT: Write sentences by saying out loud what we are going to write about.

Challenge Me

Use the sheet as a guide but write straight into your book/on to a sheet of paper. Write at least two sentences for each section and add detail about what you did and how you felt.

Remember to say your sentence out loud before you write it!

Confident

Write at least one sentence for each section and add detail about what you did.

WALT - to join clauses (parts of a sentence) using 'and.'

Can you help the witch to make her magic spell? Each spell can only use two ingredients from the witch's cupboard. Write a sentence to say which two ingredients you would put into the witch's cauldron, using the word and to join the different parts of your sentence.

I put in...

How many different sentences can you write, saying two things that you would put in the cauldron?
